

Following guidelines that were already in place, the administrator

- monitors the page to keep it a clean, community forum for the posting of useful information as well as benign posts about the neighborhood.
- approves posts and new membership requests according to rules of the page.